Those who took the orincipsi part were Chester Pedlar, Ralph Swain, Che Farmer, Regie Harmon, Ralph Ilal Roy Cenadall, Walter Hurns, Roh For School, Harmon, Howard Swart and others.

A Pleasant Occasion.

The Fairbury, Ill., Blade has the following concerning Smith Olney, father of A. D. Olney of this city: "The Masonic bodies of Fairbury gave a banquet last Friday avening in honor of Smith Olney, who was about to go from among his brother Masons to list new home on the Pacific coast. In token of their esteem the departing brother was presented with an elegant watch chain and clasm, suitably engraved with the emblems of the Knight Templar derives. The pressuitation speech was made by Roy. Sharpless and was foelingly responded to by Mr. Olney. The spirit of the hour inspired the brothern to make a number of choice after-dinner speeches which contributed much to the enjoyable nature of the occasion. W. M. John Zimmerman noted as tossimator. Anomy those making addresses were Dr. J. R. Rayburn, T. S. O. Mc. Dowell, Dr. Barnes, T. McKenzie, J. Conerus, J. H. Wortlington and Emory Gregg. Mr. Olney was made a Mason some thirty-four years ago. Hels scoretary of the Chapter and Blue Lodge and recorder of the Commandery.

Among the railroads which are at present in the hands of reactivers are some of the largest, which in traffic have occupied a prominent position for deemdes. Among them are the Philadelphia and Reading road, tha New York, Lake Frie and Western, the Northern Pacific and Union Pasific However, the bankruptcy extends still further, and at the end of December two large roads, the Santa Feand New York and New England, are in financial dilliculties which have also led to the appointment of receivers. With such a reputation as has been developed by Dr., von der Leyen can there be any hope of inducing either foreign or home capital to invest in rairoad building in this country for years to come.

The apparent inability of congress to act aptly and decisively and the revolt in the senate against the Wilson bill were, as a matter of course, damaging to the party, but they were far less so than the record of the President himself.

Grover Cleveland may possibly be able to wrap himself so completely in the mantle of conceit that he will be for the time being oblivious to the estimation which is placed upon him by the people of this country, but the time is people of this cointry, but that the thin is coming and coving speedily when his self complexency will be rudely dis-turbed. The Democratic party has been wrecked by its bigotted, autocratic and incompetent leader, and it will not, we think, silently submit to the attitude of superiority and indifference which he assumes when contemplating the result of his own handlwork.

COLONER. WATTRIBOON, the gifted editor of the Courier Journal, does not take a very hopeful view of the immediate future of the Democracy. His leading editorial following the election was headed, "Have we a Democracy?" and the question was not answered in the leading of the strick. Among other things body of the article. Never did a great party go to the preple under such handicaps as were carried by the Democrats into the campaign just ended. Hard times were lead enough, but they might have been partied. Faction fights among small clatmants and rivel place mon were had enough, but parties have met and overcome such obstacles before now; but with a record of "peridy and dishenor," as Mr. Okaveland aptly described it, to face and defend, in a hand-to-hand fight with the united Republicans, led by Harrisson, McKinky and Heed, it was disheartening. The Democrats had to face, also, the dull, self-sufficiency and stolid indifference of the administration, that made no sign, uttered no word and, at least in the state of New York, seemed to desire the defeat of the regular Democratic nominees. The battle for taxiff reform will nave to go down to the foot and take a new start. The battle over the money issue will soon be upon us. We shall see it there is Democracy enough of the true blue strips to make a greatest good against all weather; or whether we must still weat the coat of many colors covering not a homogeneous party, inspired by faith and trusk of clonel Watterson it regard to the regard to the rease of selection.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

NOW FAVORABLE FOR

BUYING. The Outlook for Business Begins t Put on a More Cheerful

Арревсвисе

The following telegram was received esterday in this city "San Francisco, November 10, 1894

"J. E. Burleigh, Fresno, Cal.—The Livurpool market continues to improve. Our wheat market is steady, with a prospect for an early advance. Our market is favorable for buying.

"GRANGERS' BUHINESS ASSOCIATION." "Glanoram Business association."
This telegram is a very important straw, showing which way the wind is beginning to blow. Wheat had been going down lower and lower until it resulted a point so low that there was no longer any profit in raising it. But the indications are that the bottom has been reached and the rise has commenced.

been reached and the race has conmenced.

It is a peculiar coincidence, worthy of consideration, that the upward tendency became noticeable very shortly after the Republican party triumphadin the election. The senience, "Our market is favorable for buying," tells a valuable story in a few words. It means that confidence in being restored, and that must who have money to invest are beginning to unlock their vasults and hing out their cash to invest it. They are no longer afraid to trust their money out of their sight.

bring out their cash to invest to the same no longer afraid to trust their money out of their sight.

It is not to be expected that prices will at once advance to the point where they were when the Democrats came into nown. That will take a long time. But as long as the sendency is unward there is encouragement for those who produce wheat. Confidence in one line of industry creates confidence in others. Frosperity is contagious the same as discouragement. The outlook among the people seemed to grow brighter from the hour of the closing of the polle on election day, and it has become evident that the Republicans were successful.

Entrop Republican.—I have just read an editorial in the Expositor giving the farmors of this valley advice about establishing new industries in order to increase the tomage for the railroad, so that they could reduce their rates to shippers. After many years of patient and unremitting toil and expenditure of millions of dollars, the people of this valley have built up the fruit growing industry to collossal proportion. But notwithstanding the fact that their creasing supply of California fruit has caused a steady decline in the custom nuarkets for several years, there has been no decline in rates on green fruit. Huntington still demands his pound of liesh—his crushing rate of $500 a car for lauling green fruit from Fresmo to Obicago. an editorial in the Expositor giving the nature green rith from this dis-crick hundreds upon humireds of car-loads, and every fruit grower in the county will bear me out in saying that not a dollar came back to the growers of the county, but all was swallowed up in the crinquient own of the Santhern Pa-cific Railroad.

I told Mr. Huntington lest spring that unless the reduced his rates on green fruit he would uterly detroy the busi-ness in this valloy, and he is doing it, for but little fruit has gone furward this season.

And now couces again Messrs. Hunbington and Mills, through the Expositor, giving us for the hundredth time that same "old story" about building up now industries and increasing out tounage, so that they can lower our tonage, so that they can lower our rates.

The Expositor and its friend Huntington seem to be ignorant of a fact that is clear to the mind of a school boy, and that is, that low rates create business, brings on a rapid development of the resources of a country, while high right rates stop production and deatroy business, A fool should see a fact so plain.

If the Expositor has the welfare of the preducing classes at heart it should stop feeding us on dry not about "building up new industries" and use its talent in trying to convince its friend and patron, the short-sighted and the navrow-minded Mr. Huntington, that his extortionate rates have etopped production, and almost toully destroyed the green fruit shipping business in this grounty.

However, there is something more than the name of Haverly. There is with the company such names as Burt Shepard, Harry Armstrong, Alf. Gibeon and thirty other artists, all of whom have proud records in the art of minstrelay. Nothing more can be said in praise of the "Mastodons" that has not already been said, for the great Haverly show is a portuniont attraction, whose past reputation is a guarantee for the future.
